

A Clergy Guide to End-of-Life Issues

The book for clergy and seminarians who have concerns about dying and death, including their own

Workshop Opportunities led by the author, Martha R. Jacobs

Do We Practice What We Preach?

Basic Workshop for Clergy and Seminarians Only (90 minutes):

- ◆ Information about the "Nuts and Bolts" of Advance Directives specific to the state in which the workshop is held
- ◆ Discussion about how to help clergy talk about end-of-life issues with congregants and tools with which to do so

Advanced Workshop for Clergy and Seminarians Only (4 hours):

- ◆ Prayerful Discernment Process for Clergy*
- ◆ "Nuts and Bolts" of Advance Directives
- ◆ How to talk about end-of-life issues with congregants and tools with which to do so
- ◆ How to help congregants to assist those who are dying and their family members

The Greatest Gift to Give to Those You Love

Basic Workshop for Congregations (2 hours):

- ◆ The "Nuts and Bolts" of Advance Directives specific to the state in which the workshop is held
- ◆ Hospital etiquette and how to be a compassionate listener

Advanced Workshop for Congregations (4 hours):

- ◆ Prayerful Discernment Process for Congregants*
- ◆ "Nuts and Bolts" of Advance Directives
- ◆ Complete Advance Directives
- ◆ Hospital etiquette and how to be a compassionate listener

* Can be adapted for any religion or faith group

For further information and to arrange for a workshop, please contact Martha through www.aclergyguidetoendoflifeissues.com or mjacobs@aclergyguidetoendoflifeissues.com